Early Newcomers of Lancaster County

by Virginia N. Lane*

The surname uniformly spelled Newcomer today appears in many forms in old records. At the University of Amsterdam in referring to Swiss Taufers (1), the name is spelled Nieuwkommet or Neuwkomet which shows the influence of Dutch spelling. The Strassburger shiplists show a variety of spellings. The name is spelled Niewcomer, Newkomer, Newcummer, Newcumber, Newcome, and Newcomer in the Pennsylvania 1790 census. As recently as 1845, my great-grandfather wrote his name in his New Testament as Christian Neukomer.

In whatever way the name is spelled, Newcomers were German Anabaptists, emigrants from Landvogtei of Erguel a part of the Bishopric of Basel, Canton Berne, Switzerland. They came from that part of Canton Berne where there was much persecution.(2)

A Christian Nieuwkommet (age 38), wife (age 32), six children, and expecting a seventh, were among a group of Swiss Anabaptists in January of 1672 at Greisheim, northwest of Strasbourg, France. Many of these families lived for a short time in the Black Forest before emigrating to France as reported by two men from Holland making a survey of the situation. Other Nieuwkommets, a Hans and family, also Babe and children were in the group.(1)

Mennonite history records a letter dated 1699 written by Jacob Gut of the Upper Palatinate to Reist Mennonites in Lower Palatinate to Christian Neucommet. In 1731, a congregation on the Rohrhof two hours east of Mannheim, Germany, mentions Christian Newcomer a deacon.(3)

Records of the 1711 exodus to Pennsylvania of early Palatine emigrants settling near the Susquehanna River list a Hans Newkomen. Peter Newcomer has the reputation of being the first of the name in Lancaster County. He was naturalized in 1729. His eldest son Johannes may have preceeded him and have been the Hans Newcomer among the earliest settlers at the western end of Chester County along the Susquehanna River. There is a Hans Newcomer on the assessment list in 1718 and again with Peter in 1721 and 1725.

Later Newcomer immigrants found in the ship passengers lists of Pennsylvania German Pioneers (4), at the port of Philadelphia from Rotterdam, Holland, begin with the year 1728:

1728 - Naycommet, Johannes
1742 - NewComer, Christian Sr. and Christian Jr.
1750 - Newcomer, Christian
1754 - Nieucomer, Christian and Ulrich
1754 - Newcomer, Christian

The chart included with this article has been arranged in generations indicating the period of time in which an individual lived. It does not necessarily mean generations of lineal descent. Where lineal descent is documented, a line is drawn to indicate this. Three men appear to be in the earliest or first generation.

FIRST GENERATION

1. PETER NEWCOMER, mentioned previously, was of Leacock Township, Lancaster County, when he died in 1732. His will was written in high Dutch(5) translated reads: "My will that my middle son Wolfgang shall have the Right of the Place, plantation and lands, made over to him by me having so much confidence of the goodness of my son Wolfgang that I am certain he will help to raise his younger Brothers and Sisters." Son John and Christian Martin were to administer the will. Personal effects, etc., were to be valued by the Mennonite Elders and be divided equally among his children.

His death was on January 29, 1732 and the will was probated in 1733. A document by R. L. Brownfield Jr.(6) states: "His will mentions by name only his middle son Wolfgang, but in the proof his eldest son John Newcomer is mentioned. The testator evidently had three sons and probably other children, judging from the language of the declarations as set down by his friends or neighbors who were with him in his extremis, and took down his dying words in reference to the disposition of his estate, but we have no means of ascertaining the name of his other son or children.

2. JOHANNES NAYCOMMET is another immigrant of whom we know only that he came on the ship "Mortonhouse" in 1728. We should not be confused with Peter's son Johannes who came earlier, but here is being placed in the second generation. Other passengers on the "Mortonhouse" were Ulrich, Peter, and Casper Sherrick/Sherk. The latter married Magdalina Newcomer and lived in Durlach, Cocalico Twp., Lancaster Co., Pa.(7).

3. CHRISTIAN NEWCOMER, SR. is the third immigrant. He arrived on the "Frances and Elizabeth" in 1742 with his son Christian Jr. who was a young man old enought to be named and make his mark on the ship's list of passengers. Jay Stoddard Newcomer of Ohio mentions in his notes that they settled in Lancaster County.(8)

SECOND GENERATION

Now to consider the second generation, those individuals known to be offspring of the first generation, or whose approximate birthdate would place them in this generation, though they may have no documented parent in the previous generation. Among such second generation Newcomers would appear to be those three Christians and Ulrich who came in 1750 and 1754. Christian and Ulrich of the 1754 "Phoenix" are known to have settled in York County, Pa. Another Christian on the 1754 "Neptune" may also have been among this wave of immigrants crossing the Susquehanna River at this time.

4. JOHANNES NEWCOMER of Strasburg, son of Peter, may have come to America earlier than his father. He was on the first assessment lists of 1718 and 1721, and with his father was a Conestoga taxable in 1724-1725.(9) He bought 100 acres of land in 1729 from Martin and A. Kendig in Strasburg.(10) The name of Johannes' wife is not known. Following his death in the settling of his estate in 1760, the above mentioned deed(11) lists his heirs: Abraham, Christian m. Anna, John m. Elizabeth, Ulrich, Anna m. Peter Hoffman, Magdalina m. Peter Bowman, Barbara m. Abraham Brenneman, and Catherine.

5. WOLFGANG NEWCOMER, the middle son of Peter, was a carpenter. He and his wife, Elizabeth Weller, lived in Leacock Twp. until his death. His will(12) dated March 4, 1771, mentions his wife and children. "Father Wolfgang arranged for Christian to buy the farm and assume responsibility for widow and sisters."(13)

6. PETER NEWCOMAT of Hempfield Twp. comes to light at his own death. On April 14, 1755, administrators were appointed for the estate of Peter NewComat, deceased. There is a copy of the legal paper whereby Jacob Furrey, John NewCommet, Henry Neiff, and John Histand on the payment of 400 pounds were bonded to administer the estate. This is in the archives of the Lacaster County Historical Society along with Peter's inventory. These men as instructed did make a true and just account of the inventory to the amount of L105-17-4 which included a house clock, tablecloths and linen, beds and household goods, money, bonds, and notes.

7. CHRISTIAN NEWCOMER SR. of Cocalico Twp. is indeed a shadowy individual. In 1760, Christian bought a plantation of 124 acres from Peter Sherrick in Cocalico Twp.(14) In 1763, the will of Ulrich Shirk was witnessed by Peter Sherrick, Jacob Bixler, and Christian Newkomet.(15) With the identification of a Christian Newcomer Jr., in the third generation lies the proof of the father with the same name which so often causes confusion in genealogy.

8. MAGDALENA NEWCOMER married Casper Sherk, the son of Ulrich Sherrick, both of whom arrived here in 1728 on the "Mortonhouse". Johannes Naycommet, first generation, came on the same ship. I believe this to be her father. Sherk records show that Casper and Magdalena lived in Cocalico Twp. They had four daughters and no sons.

9. JOHN NEWCOMER of Warwick Twp. died in 1770. His will(16) indicates that his estate consisted mostly of bonds with interest. To son Henry he left a plantation and tract of land of 120 acres in Baltimore Co., Md. adjoining Frederick Geable and N. Winchester.

10. CHRISTIAN NEWCOMER of Warwick Twp. has recently come to my attention on a deed dated 1761.(17) The name is spelled "Newcomber" which may be a clerk's error. The date gives me no clue as to his relationship to the above John.

11. CHRISTIAN NEWCOMER JR. arrived with his father on the "Frances and Elizabeth" in 1742 and settled in Lancaster County. This may be the Christian who married Catehrine Nissley.(18) This Christian lived in Bethel Twp., Berks Co. (which before 1752 was Lancaster Co.). They had the following children: Maria m. Daniel Lehman, John, Jacob, Peter, Christian, Anna, Barbara, and Magdalena m. Robert Assman.(19)

12. CHRISTIAN NEWCOMER who arrived in 1750 on the "Brotherhood" is mentioned in Jay Stoddard Newcomer's notes.(8) A William S. Newcomer of Philadelphia in the late 1880s had information about this family. A son Peter was born in May 1753. From the ship's passenger list, I see that Christian Furrer, Hans and Johannes Hertzler, and Christian Kauffman were also on the "Brotherhood". I am working on the belief that this group settled in that part of Hempfield Twp. later to become Manor Twp., Lancaster Co., and that Christian Newcomer had a son Christian too young to appear on the ship's list.

13. FRANCIS NEWCOMER is recorded as having a warrantee for fifty acres of land in Lancaster County on June 8, 1750.(20) One other reference (21) places him among "Ye Ancient Inhabitants" of the West End of Derry in 1755, 1757, and 1759. In 1785, Derry Twp. was part of Dauphin Co.

THIRD GENERATION

The third generation begins with the sons and daughters of Strasburg Johannes.

14. ABRAHAM NEWCOMER was also of Strasburg. In 1760, he married Anna (Baer) Miley, a widow with children. Abraham and Anna had only one son, Christian.(22) Abraham was listed as a Lancaster gunsmith at the time of the Revolution.(23) In 1775, a Mennonite gunsmith by trade was threatened with scalping by the Conestoga Indians for refusing to mend their tomahawks. On November 8, 1775, Abraham was named a member of the Committee of Observation. (24) He died in 1794.

15. JOHN NEWCOMER married Elizabeth Gochenauer, daughter of Joseph Gochenauer, a neighbor in Hempfield Twp. where they farmed. Two John Newcomers farming in Hempfield, each with a wife named Elizabeth, one died in 1782 and the other in 1788 can be confusing. This John is identified by his Gochenauer connections. John and Elizabeth had two sons: Christian m. Susanna Stubchen and Joseph m. Maria Habecker and their sons were Jacob of Cumberland and Joseph, Jr. who remained in Lancaster Co.(25) John's inventory at his death in 1788 is preserved among old papers at the Lancaster County Historical Society. It includes livestock and farm implements as well as household goods and money in bonds totaling L336. His widow is listed in Hempfield in the 1790 census.

16. CHRISTIAN NEWCOMER married Anna Summy. He was a farmer in the Manor for many years and reared a large family. His eldest son, John, was a Mennonite preacher. Christian is listed in the 1790 census. He died in 1805,(26) and his wife died in 1813. Her will mentions the children.(27)

17. ULRICH NEWCOMER, the youngest son of Strasburg Johannes, is on the Conestoga tax list in 1780 and again in 1782 as a renter.(28)

18. HENRY NEWCOMER, son of Wolfgang, is on the Lampeter Twp. tax list for 1771, 1772, and 1773. He married Barbara Garver and in 1775 sold the Lampeter property. Both Henry and his brother Peter moved to Washington Co., Md. A very complete account of Wolfgang's descendants is given in the history of this county.(29)

19. CHRISTIAN NEWCOMER, second son of Wolfgang, married Elizabeth Baer and had a family of three boys and one girl. He became an itinerant minister in the budding United Brethren Church and is known as the Bishop Christian Newcomer. His family grew up in Maryland, however his will names him as of West Hempfield Twp., Lancaster County.(30) His Journal of Tours, 1795-1829 gives an interesting account of his life.

20. JOHANNES NEWCOMER of Hempfield, son of Peter, signs his name NeuKomatt. He married Elizabeth Stoneman/Stehman, daughter of John Stoneman. In 1755, John and his wife with her two sisters and their husbands having bought 150 acres on Little Conestoga Creek including mill, races, ponds, watercourses, buildings, etc. from father John Stoneman, sold it to John Stoner.(31) During the next twelve years this John Newcomer's name appears on a number of deeds in buying and selling land. John was a blacksmith and gunsmith. An article on early gunsmiths in Lancaster County in the Journal of the Lancaster County Historical Society names John Sr., 1779-1780, and John Jr., 1780-1783.(32)

A portion of the warrantee map of Cocalico Township (now Ephrata Twp.) showing the land of Christian Newcomer, Jr. (d. 1800).

His inventory at the time of his death in 1782 lists the tools of the trade of a blacksmith and gunsmith, the latter valued at L60, also wheelwright tools at L25, a few books "mostly old ones" at L3. Total inventory was a bit less that L250.

21. JACOB NEWCOMER is a Hempfield farmer who bought a proprietary tract of 176 acres in 1750.(33) Dying in 1759 as the father of a very young family, the Orphan's Court records tell his story. Jacob left a wife Eva (34) and children John, Anna, Jacob, and Christian.(35) He must have been a very young man, perhaps in his thirties.

22. CHRISTIAN NEWCOMER JR. of Cocalico Twp. is apparently a grandson of "Mortonhouse" Johannes. He acquired a farm in what is now Ephrata Twp. possibly from his father. On a warrantee map this can be seen with the name of Christian Newcomer Jr., warrantee date Sept. 26, 1753 and patent date Nov. 28, 1764. He married Barbara Baer and they had a son John who died before his father Christian wrote a will in 1799 which left property to grandson when he becomes of age.(36)

23. HENRY NEWCOMER, son of John of Warwick, must be followed to Baltimore, Maryland, if his records would be pursued further.

24. CHRISTIAN NEWCOMER of Manor Twp. was born about 1750 and died 1786. He owned two adjacent parcels of land in that twp., one of 109 acres and the other of 22 acres. This farm was on the border between Manor and Hempfield Twps. He died unexpectedly before any of his five children had reached of age. The deed for this purchase was not registered. The legal paper is a deed to Christian Hertzler, guardian for the eldest son, Christian Newcomet.(37) The elder Newcomer's wife is believed to have been a Furrey.(38) Orphan's Court Records(39) disclose the names of the children.

25. PETER NEWCOMER, born May 13, 1753, married Catherine Good and is an ancestor of Jay S. Newcomer of Eldora, Iowa, who has assisted me in my quest for these early Newcomers. Peter and Catherine had a daughter Magdalene who married Peter Galley of Lancaster County.(40) This family was in Fayette Co., Pa. by the early 1800s.

26. JOHN NEWCOMER appears as a weaver on the tax lists of Manor Twp. in 1780 after Christian Newcomer, also a weaver of Manor Twp. 1771, 1772, and 1773, no longer appears.(41) Is this father and son? Another question is whether John Newcomer, weaver, is the same as the following John.

27. JOHN NEWCOMER near Millersville had a wife Frany and children: Elizabeth b. 1784, John 1792, Christian, Nancy, Mary, and Frany. They moved to Cavetown District, Leitersburg, Md., in 1797.(42)

FOURTH GENERATION

28. CHRISTIAN NEWCOMER, only son of Abraham, was born in 1761. He is listed as the head of the family in the 1790 census (4-4-6), Lampeter, Conestoga Twp. He may well be the Christian who married Magdalina Oberholtzer in 1781. Christian died in 1806 owning 242 acres of land.(43) His children were Elizabeth, Barbara, Abraham, Anna, Nancy, and Christiana.(44)

29. CHRISTIAN NEWCOMER, the eldest son of Joh and Elizabeth (Gochenauer) Newcomer, was born in 1770. He married a neighbor Susanna Stubchen. His name appears in the 1800 census. Christian died in 1815.(45)

30. JOSEPH NEWCOMER, second son of John and Elizabeth, was born in 1775, named for his grandfather Joseph Gochenauer. He married in 1798 to Mary Habecker. He died in 1849.(46)

31. NANCY NEWCOMER married John Keller of Donegal. She had a sister Elizabeth who was single.

32. JOHN NEWCOMER, son of Christian and Anna, was a farmer in Manor Twp. (47) He married Elizabeth Eshleman and led a long and useful life, a respected preacher in the Mennonite church.(48)

33. CHRISTIAN and PETER NEWCOMER, sons of Christian and Anna, were of Donegal Twp. in 1807. Two other sons, JACOB and ABRAHAM appear only as names in the mother's will.

34. JOHN NEWCOMER JR., the older son of Johannes of Hempfield was a gunsmith like his father as listed in 1780-1783. He married Susanna Stauffer and had no children. John lived to be an old man writing his will in 1822 although it was not executed until 1848.(49) Susanna had died before John. John left his estate to his nephew Henry Stauffer and to his deceased brother's children. By this time, Henry Stauffer and John and Jacob Newcomer were also deceased. The will provides for $100 to be given to "Jacob S. Newcomer, an elder in our Society of Menonists, for the poor."

35. CHRISTIAN NEWCOMER, the younger son of Johannes of Hempfield, married Anna Witmer, daughter of Michael Witmer, a neighboring Hempfield farmer. Christian and Anna had five sons and four daughters. Christian acquired the Witmer farm at his wife's father's death in 1764. He bought 257 acres from the Witmer heirs.(50) Christian died in 1807.

36. JOHN S. NEWCOMER, eldest son of Jacob of Hempfield, was but six when his father died. How Mother Eva managed with her young family has not been recorded. We are just fortunate to glean her first name from some administrative papers. John Jr. married Anna. There is a legal record(51) reporting that when John turned 21, his father's farm in Hempfield was disposed. Further history of this 176 acres up to the time it was sold out of the Newcomer name in 1782 is given in a deed.(52) John and Anna had a seven children and their names are recorded in their father's will(53) written in 1805 and proved in 1822. John lived into his seventieth year. John Jr. who married Susanna was an executor of the will as well as John Hertzler, the husband of the oldest daughter, Barbara. John Newcomer is a freeholder in West Hempfield in 1819.

37. ANNA NEWCOMER, daughter of Jacob, was born in 1755. She was the second wife of John Summy of Rapho Twp. This information is taken from the Long Family of Pennsyvlania. Joseph Long and Christ Haldeman were guardians of the Newcomer children.

38. JACOB NEWCOMER was born in 1756.(54) He is probably the Jacob Newcomer who appears in the 1790 census, Manor Twp. (3-3-4). In 1791, he married Ensminger.

39. CHRISTIAN NEWCOMER, the youngest of this family, was but a year old when his father died.

40. JOHN NEWCOMER, the son of Christian Jr. of Cocalio Twp, married Veronica and had a son John. However, before Father Christian died, his son John was dead and Veronica had married Samuel Bear.

The photo of the rear view of the newer house also shows a small building to the right which is said to have been lived in and is probably the smaller, original house on the property. Both houses are shown on the 1826 survey. Credit: Virginia N. Lane

41. CHRISTIAN NEWCOMER, son of Christian of Manor Twp., was born in 1773. He was but thirteen when his father died. As soon as he was of age he came into the ownership of his father's farmof 131 acres by the customary method of paying to each sibling his or her share in money. Christian remained on the homestead and at about this time married a neighbor Barbara Seitz, daughter of Jacob Seitz. They had a family of five girls, three boys, and then another girl. Christian died in his forty-second year. The older girls had already married. Barbara remained on the farm and managed well with her little family. Jacob, the oldest of the boys, was but twelve, however, the legend of his responsibility has lived down to the present. Most of Christian's children settled in Lancaster County. Christian and Barbara are both buried in Habecker's Cemetery in Manor Twp.

42. MARY NEWCOMER married Jacob Newcomer of York Co., a farmer, and Mennonite preacher. They moved to Fayette Co., Pa. Her family records are found in James K. Newcomer's Record of One Branch of the Newcomer Family.

43. JOHN NEWCOMER went to Maryland where he died leaving no descendants.

44. BARBARA NEWCOMER married a Snyder and went to Dayton, Ohio. She had no children.

45. ELIZABETH NEWCOMER, the youngest of Christian's children, was "released to John Strickler" by her guardian. I suspect that she may have gone with her older sister Barbara who was 21 that same week.(55)

There was a great fever of western migration in the early 1800s.

46. ELIZABETH NEWCOMER, oldest child of John and Frany Newcomer, was born in 1784. She moved with her family to Maryland when thirteen.

47. JOHN NEWCOMER, eldest son of John and Frany, was born near Millersville in 1792. At the age of five, he moved to Cavetown District, Washington Co., Md., where he grew up and is the ancestor of many. William's history of the county traces this family.

FIFTH GENERATION

48. ABRAHAM NEWCOMER, grandson of Abraham of Strasburg and son of Christian and Magdalena, was born in 1788. He was a Strasburg merchant in 1809 at which time his guardian was released.(56)

49. ELIZABETH NEWCOMER, daughter of Christian, married Joseph McIlhenny. Further information concerning this family may be found under the name McIlhenny.(57)

50. JOHN NEWCOMER, son of Christian, married Mary. They lived in West Hempfield Twp. and had children: John, Christian, Nancy Stehman, Susan, Mary, and Elizabeth. He died in 1833.(58)

51. ELIZABETH NEWCOMER, daughter of Joseph G. Newcomer, married in 1818 to Andrew Metzger. They had a son Jacob Newcomer Metzgar who married Barbara Hershey.

52. JOSEPH NEWCOMER, son of Joseph, married a Bruckhart. He continued on the home farm and had sons W. Scott and Amos Speece.

53. JOHN E. NEWCOMER, born 1816, is the son of John and Elizabeth (Eshleman) Newcomer. He continued on the Manor farm and his name appears on the 1864 map of Manor Twp. He married Catherine, daughter of Daniel Forrey. They had a son John. John E. died in 1904.

54. CHRISTIAN NEWCOMER married in 1817 to Elizabeth Hartman. They had a son Christopher born in 1817.

55. JOHN NEWCOMER, JR., son of John S. and Anna, married 1818 to Mary Kauffman, daughter of Christian Kauffman. They had sons John, Emannuel, and Ephraim.

56. JOHN NEWCOMER, son of John and Veronica, married Polly. He inherited land in Cocalico Twp from his grandfather Christian when he became of age.

57. ELIZABETH NEWCOMER, oldest daughter of Christian and Barbara, married Michael Kauffman (1792-1862). They lived in West Hempfield Twp. in 1838.

59. CATHERINE NEWCOMER (1798-1886) married Christian Musser. They are buried on the Musser family farm.

60. JACOB NEWCOMER (1801-1861) married Barbara Kauffman (1803-1857). They farmed the homestead farm in Manor Twp. and had a large family. Christian K., the oldest son, inherited the homestead. He married Elizabeth Mellinger. Jacob K. married Anna Buckwalter and purchased a farm in Manor Twp. before his father died. An account of this family may be found in Biographical Annals of Lancaster County. Joseph K., Isaac K., and Abraham K. all farmed in the Manor and are buried in Habecker's Cemetery.

61. CHRISTIAN NEWCOMER (1808-1884), son of Christian and Barbara, married Elizabeth Nissley of Rapho Twp. where they took up farming adjacent to her home. They had a family of three boys and five girls. The account of this family is recorded in Nissleys II by J. Clarence Reist.

62. JOHN S. NEWCOMER (1810-1902), the youngest of the sons, married Frances Charles. They lived in Manor Twp., later moving to the White Oak area. John was a preacher in the Church of the Brethren. Dr. Jack Shand has compiled a chart for this branch of the family.

Much of this fifth generation material was gleaned from secondary soucres such as the card file at the Lancaster Mennonite Historical Society, letters of inquiry, or various notes fom individuals through the years. THey have in most cases not been verified from original source materials.

The compiler of this article would appreciate any additional information to correct or amplify the information in this article. While this mateial is deliberately limited to Lancaster County, it does not indicate that we are not interested in the Newcomer family lines in other parts of the country.

I want to acknowledge the many helpers and encouragement they gave me along the way. Jay S. Newcomer of Eldora, Iowa, who was 91 when I last corresponded with him in 1973 and who sent me information to give me a start. Ira Landis boosted my morale when I timidly came to him with questions. Then when I had gotten completely bogged down and confused with my own line, Lester W. Newcomer of Landisville, and Dr. Jack Shand of Gettysburg College appeared on the scene to to set me straight. We represent three generations, but have the same Christian Newcomer of Manor Twp. as a common ancestor.

Dr. Jack Shand has been of tremendous help doing a lot of "leg work" that saved me time and energy. To prove his diligence, let me say that he was once chased of the Library of Congress by a bomb scare on a cold winter day. But he went back another time and secured the information.

I have made a number of acquaintances by correspondence, especially Mrs. Treva Lawyer of Chambersburg, who has persevered to obtain information on the original location of Christian Newcomer married to Catherine Nissley. Then, last but not least, my husband, Edward Lane, who has provided transportation for me to work in the Court House and several Archives in Lancaster and York County. As well as patiently borne with my engrossment in the subject of my ancestors.

THE NEWCOMER FAMILIES OF PENNSYLVANIA

by

Manley W. Mallett

INTRODUCTION

The immigrant progenitors of nearly every Newcomer family in the United States arrived at Philadelhia, PA. In my 1982 book, "All those Newcomer Families of Maryland", I reported that the earliest Newcomers listed were Hance (1718) and Peter (1719) in Lancaster County. Both were in Conestoga Twp. in 1734-25. Peter left a will dated 29 Jan. 1732 in which he leaves his lands to "my middle son Wolfgang". At that point the inventory of Komets, New Komets, Neukomets, Newcomers ect. included children, if any, of Hance, an older and younger brother of Wolfgang and probably sisters. Wolfgang would have to be of age and born in or before 1710 since he was not identified as a minor in the will.

Wolfgang's three sons moved to Washington County, MD to raise their families. Hence, Newcomers with Maryland ancestry are likely to be descendants of Wolfgang.

On 21 Sept. 1742, a Christian Newcomer and Christian Jr. arrived from Rotterdam on the Ship Francis and Elizabeth. On 1 Oct. 1754, Ulrich Neycob (Newcomer) and a Christian Neycomer arrived on the Ship Phoenix (Ref. 1). Researchers of Newcomer usually try to trace their ancestry to Wolfgang or Ulrich although the several Christian Newcomers were probably equally prolific.

Recently, Virginia N. Lane published an excellent article "Early Newcomers of Lancaster County" (Ref. 2).This presents up to five generations of these Pennsylvania immigrants. Therefore, the following account will largely be concerned with the family lines of Ulrich Newcomer and his sons in York County and later in Fayette County, PA down to 1850. Also, the 1850 Federal Census records will be given for all Newcomers (all spellings) in Pennsylvania.

ULRICH NEWCOMER

In 1754, a number of German-speaking Anabaptists emigrated to America from the district of Erquel in the canton of Bern, Switzerland. Their ancestors had originally fled from the old German part of Bern where the Anabaptists were being persecuted. They were required to pay an emigration tax, but most were poor and could pay little or no tax money. Apparently they were encouraged to emigrate by propaganda of emigration agents and would have to pay off their passage fare after reaching America. On the list paying tax was Ulrich Neukommet (Neukomm). He was from the mountains near Corgemont. Also listed was Christen Neukommet of nearby Cormoret. (Ref. 3)

Legend has it that Ulrich's first wife (name unknown) died on the ship coming to America, leaving Ulrich with his first born, the infant, Anna. It is also said that his second wife, Magdalena Baumgartner, also was on the Phoenix. This might be questioned since her first child was born in 1762, eight years after the passage.

Land Patent to Ulrich Newcomer

-Abstract-

This patent was issued to Ulrich Newcomer on 11 April 1763 for a tract of land situated in Hellam Twp., York Co., PA.

Thomas Penn and Richard Penn Esquirers, and Governors in Chief of the Province of Pennsylvania and counties of Newcastle, Kent and Sussex on Delaware noted that on 27 Jan. 1757 the tract in Hellam Twp., York County was surveyed unto Gottlieb Reicher. It was bounded by lands of Joseph Schultzbach, Stephen Reeb, Adam Creamer and contained 129½ acres. Gottlieb Reicher had cleared 40 acres by 1 Nov. 1762. By his grant Ulrich received rights to Mines, Minerals, Quarries, Meadows, Marshes, Savannahs, Swamps, Cripples, Woods, Underwoods, Timber and Trees, Ways, Waters and Watercourses. The grant was issued at the office at "our Manor of Maske, County of York, PA.

The patent was witnessed by James Hamilton, Esq. Lt. Governor of PA. The Great Seal of the Province was affixed at Philadelphia 11 April 1763, Third Year of the Reign of King George 111 of Great Britain and the 45th year of the said Proprietaries Govt.

Recored 21 June 1763. See Patent Book AA Volume 5, page 63, Dept. of Internal Affairs of Pennsylvania.

Ulrich apparently lived on this land until his death in August 1787. He left the following will mentioning by name, only his wife, Magdalena, his daughter, Anna, by his first wife and his eldest son, Christian. His will was written in German and translated as follows.

burg. He was mustered out of service July 10, 1865, and notwithstanding the many dangers that he encountered, he came home unscathed and in good health, except that he was suffering somewhat from the effects of a sunstroke received at Ft. Gibson, Miss. He is now a member of Coleman Post No. 115, G. A. R., of Wymore.

In February, 1881, Mr. James removed to Nebraska with his family and located on his present farm of 480 acres, on sections 1, 2, 11 and 12. There was then only a house and barn on the place, but he has since erected a fine stone house, and has otherwise greatly improved the value of his farm, so that it is one of the best improved farms in this township. He also owns 160 acres of land on sections 10 and 11, all the property that he has thus far acquired being the result of his untiring industry and good business ability. Mr. James has been particularly successful in raising cattle, the Shorthorns being his favorite breed, and he usually feeds about 100 head a year.

Mr. and Mrs. James occupy a high social position in this community, and their geniality, kindness and genuine hospitality make their pleasant home very attractive to the friends who have gathered around them since their residence here. They are active in every good work for promoting the material and moral interests of Paddock Township, and they contribute liberally to the support of the Baptist Church, of which they are members. In his views of the political questions of the day Mr. James finds himself in harmony with the Republican party.

W1.1.10.3.

OLIVER NEWCOMER is a farmer residing on section 23, Glenwood Township, and is a son of Joel and Sarah (Adams) Newcomer, who are natives of Washington County, Md. They moved to Ogle County, Ill., in which place the mother died in the spring of 1857, and the father died about the year 1872. They had a family of five children, of whom four are living; their names are: Ann M., John Q., Oliver, Emurilla and Catherine. Ann M. was the wife of Milton McConley, and died in Ogle County, Ill.; John Q. died when he was quite young; Emurilla is the wife of Joseph C. Moats, of Ogle County, Ill.; Catherine is a resident of Ogle County.

Our subject was born on the 20th of February, 1839, in Washington County, Md., where he spent the first sixteen years of his life on a farm. At that age he went with his parents to Illinois and settled in Lincoln Township, Ogle County. He received his education from the common schools, and when he became old enough to devote himself to an occupation he chose that of agriculture. He remained in Ogle County until the spring of 1884, when he came to this county and settled on section 23, on which he owns 160 acres of land all under cultivation. He has made comfortable improvements, having erected good and convenient buildings and surrounded his fields with rows of fencing. He gives his attention to general farming and stock-raising, and makes a specialty of raising horses. In politics he is a Republican.

JAMES F. COLGROVE is one of the substantial farmers who have been most active in developing the agricultural resources of Gage County, and his beautiful farm, with its broad, well-tilled acres and various valuable improvements, finely located in Paddock and Sicily Townships, indicates that he is a practical, wide-awake man, who has been decidedly successful in his chosen calling.

Mr. Colgrove is a son of Andrew and Almira (Baxter) Colgrove, natives of New York, and he was born in Steuben County, N. Y., July 31, 1853. When our subject was three years old his parents left their old home in New York to settle in Winchester, Ind. After living there about eight years they removed to Rochester, Ohio, and thence to Florida, Mo., in 1859. They subsequently lived in the State of Illinois for a period of twelve years, Then they came West again, and located in Marysville, Kan., where the father died on the anniversary of his birth, Jan. 27, 1881, when fifty-seven years old. He was in every way a worthy man,

He became an itinerant minister in the budding United Brehern Church and is known as Bishop Christian Newcomer. His family grew up in Maryland, however his will names him as of West Hempfield Twp., Lamcaster County.(30) His Journal of Tours, 1795-1829 gives an interesting account of his life.

Mortonhouse in 1728
Lived in Cocalico Twp.

MFH-2 Johannes Naycommet is another immigrant of whom we know only that he came on the ship "Mortonhouse" in 1728. We should not be confused with Peter's son Johannes who came earlier, but here is being placed in the second generation. Other passengers on the "Mortonhouse" were Ulrich, Peter, Casper Sherrick/ Sherk. The latter married Magdalina Newcomer and lived in Durlach, Cocalico Twp., Lancaster Co., PA (7)

MFH-7 Christian Newcomer Sr. of Cocalico Twp. is indeed a shadowy individual. In 1760, Christian bought a plantation of 124 acres from Peter Sherrick in Cocalico Twp.(14) In 1763 the will of Ulrich Shirk was Witnessed by Peter Sherrick, Jacob Bixler, and Christian Newkomet. (15) With the identification of a Christian Newcomer Jr., in the third generation lies proof of the father with the same name which so often causes confusion in genealogy.

14Melvin R. Evans, manuscrapt, "Stetler" tract.

15Will C-1-47, 1763, Lancaster, PA.

MFH-8 Magdalena Newcomer married Casper Sherk, the son of Ulrich Sherrick, both of whom arrived here in 1728 on the "Mortonhouse". Johannes Naycommet, first gereration, came on the same ship. I believe this to be her father. Sherk records show that Casper and Magdalena lived in Cocalico Twp. They had four daughters and no sons.

MFH-22 Christian Newcomer Jr. of Cocalico Twp. is apparently a grandson of "Mortonhouse" Johannes. He acquired a farm in what is now Ephrata Twp. possibly from his father. On a warrentee map this can be seen with the name of Christian Newcomer Jr., warrantee date Sept. 26, 1753 and patent date Nov. 28, 1764. He married Barbara Bear and they had a son John who died before his father Christian wrote a will in 1799 which left property to grandson when he becomes of age.(36)

MFH-40 John Newcomer the son of Christian Jr. of Cocalico Twp. married Veronica and had a son John. However, before father Christian died, his son John was dead and Veronica had married Samuel Bear.

MFH-56 John Newcomer, son of John and Veronica married Polly. He inherited land in Cocalico Twp. from his grandfather Christian when he became of age.

4. JOHANNES NEWCOMER of Strasburg, son of Peter, may have come to America earlier than his father. He was on the first assessment lists of 1718 and 1721, and with his father was a Conestoga taxable in 1724-1725.(9) He bought 100 acres of land in 1729 from Martin and A. Kendig in Strasburg.(10) The name of Johannes's is not known. Following his death in the settling of his estate in 1760, the above mentioned deed(11) list his heirs: Abraham, Christian m Anna, John m Elizabeth, Ulrich, Anna m Peter Hoffman, Magdalina m Peter Bowman. Barbara m Abraham Brenneman, and Catherine.

14. ABRAHAM NEWCOMER was also of Strasburg. In 1760, he married Anna (Bear) Miley, a widow with children. Abraham and Anna had only one son, Christian.(22) Abraham was listed as a Lancaster gunsmith at the time of the Revolution.(23) In 1775, a Mennonite gunsmith by trade was threatened with scalping by the Conestoga Indians for rufusing to mend their tomahawks. On November 8, 1775, Abraham was named a member of the Committee of Observation.(24) He died in 1794.

15. JOHN NEWCOMER married Elizabeth Gochensuer, daughter of Joseph Gochensauer, a neighbor in Hempfield Twp. where they farmed. Two John Newcomers farming in Hempfield, each with a wife named Elizabeth, one died in 1782 and the other in 1788 can be confusing. This John is identified by his Gochensauer connection. John and Elizabeth had two sons: Christian m Susanna Stebehen and Joseph m Maria Häbecker and their sons were Jacob of Cumberland and Joseph Jr. who remained in Lancaster Co.(25) John's inventory at the time of his death in 1788 is preserved among old papers at the Lancaster County Historical Society. It includes livestock and farm implements as well as household goods and money in bonds totaling $1.336. His widow is listed in Hempfield in the 1790 census

28. CHRISTIAN NEWCOMER, only son of Abraham, was born in 1761. He is listed as the head of the family in the 1790 census (4-4-6), Lampeter, Conestoga Twp. He may well be the Christian who married Magdaline Oberhoitzer in 1781. Christian died in 1806 owning 242 acres of land.(43) His children were Elizabeth, Barbara, Abraham, Anna, Nancy, and Christiana.(44)

3. Christian Newcomer Sr. is the third immigrant. He arrived on the "Frances and Elizabeth" in 1742 with his son Christian Jr. who was a young man old enough to be named and make his mark on the ship's list of passengers. Jay Stoddard Newcomer of Ohio mentions in his notes that they settled in Lancaster County,(8)

11. Christian Newcomer Jr. arrived with his father on the "Frances and Elizabeth" in 1742 and settled in Lancaster County. This May be the Christian who married Catherine Nissley.(18) This Christian lived in Bethel Twp., Berks Co. (which before 1752 was Lancaster Co.) They had the following children: Maria m. Daniel Lehman, John, Jacob, Peter, Christian Anna, Barbara, and Magdalena m. Robert Assman.(19)

6. Peter Newcomat of Hempfield Twp. comes to light at his death. On April 14, 1755, administrators were appointed for the estate of Peter NewComat, deceased. There is a copy of the legal paper whereby Jacob Furrey, John NewCommet, Henry Neiff, and John Histand on the payment of 400 pounds were bonded to administer the estate. This is in the archives of the Lancaster County Historical Society along with Peter's inventory. These men as instructed did make a true and just account of the inventory to the amount of L105-17-4 which included a house clock, tablecloths and linen, beds and household goods, bonds, and notes.

20. Johannes Newcomer of Hempfield, son of Peter, signs his name NeuKomatt. He married Elizabeth Stoneman/Stehman, daughter of John Stoneman. In 1755, John and his wife with her two sisters and their husbands having bought 150 acres on Little Conestoga Creek including mill, races, ponds, watercourses, buildings, ect. from father John Stoneman, sold it to John Stoner.
Ref: Deed D-212.
During the next twelve years this John Newcomer's name appears on a number of deeds in buying and selling land. John was a blacksmith and gunsmith. An article on early gunsmiths in Lancaster County in the Journal of the Lancaster County Historical Society names John Sr., 1779-1780, and John Jr., 1780-1783.
Ref: Lancaster County Historical Society Journal, June 4, 1978.

34. John Newcomer Jr., the oldest son of Johannes of Hempfield was a gunsmith like his father as listed in 1780-1783. He married Susanna Stauffer and had no children. John lived to be an old man writing his will in 1822 although it was not executed until 1848. (Ref: Will U-1-597) Susanna had died before John. John left his estate to his nephew Henry Stauffer and to his deceased brother's children. By this time, Henry Stauffer and john and Jacob Newcomer were also deceased. The Will provides for $100 to be given to "Jacob S. Newcomer, an elder in our Society of Menonists, for the poor."

35. Christian Newcomer, the younger son of Johannes of Hempfield, married Anna Witmer, daughter of Michael Witmer, a neighboring Hempfield farmer. Christian and Anna had five sons and four daughters. Christian acquired the Witmer farm at his wife,s father's death in 1764. He bought 257 acres from the Witmer heirs (Deed M-88, 1764.) Christian died in 1807.

54. Christian Newcomer married in 1817 to Elizabeth Hartman. They had a son Christopher born in 1817.

MFH-9 John Newcomer of Warwick Twp., died 1770. His Will indicates that his estate consisted mostly (16) of bonds with interest. To son Henry he left a plantation and tract of land of 120 acres in Baltimore Co., MD adjoining Frederick Geable and N. Winchester.

MFH-23 Henry Newcomer, son of John of Warwick, must be followed to Baltimore, Maryland, if his records would be pursued futher.

MFH-10 Christian Newcomer of Warwick Twp., has recently came to my attention on a deed dated 1761. The name is spelled Newcomber which may be a clerk's error. The date gives me no clue as to his relationship to the above John. (17)

MFH-12 Christian Newcomer who arrived in 1750 on the "Brotherhood" is mentioned in Jay Stoddard Newcomer's notes.(8) A William S. Newcomer of Philadelphia in the late 1880's had information about this family. A son Peter was born in May 1753. From the ship's passenger list, I see that Christian Furrer, Hans and Johannes Hertzler, and Christian Kauffman were also on the "Brotherhood". I am working on the belief that this group settled in that part of Hempfield Twp. later to become Manor Twp., Lancaster Co., and that Christian Newcomer had a son Christian too young to appear on the ship's list.

MFH-24 Christian Newcomer of Manor Twp. was born about 1750 and died 1786. He owned two adjacent parcels of land in that twp., one of 109 acres and the other of 22 acres. This farm was on the border between Manor and Hempfield Twps. He died unexpectedly befor any of his five children had reached of age. The deed for this purchase was not registered. The legal paper is a deed to Christian Hertzler, guardian for the eldest son, Christian Newcomet.(37) The elder Newcomer's wife is believed to have been a Furrey.(38) Orphan's Court Records(39) disclose the names of the children.

MFH-25 Peter Newcomer, born May 13, 1753, married Catherine Good and is an ancester of Jay S. Newcomer of Eldora, Iowa, who has assisted me in my quest for these early Newcomers. Peter and Catherine had a daughter Magdalene who married Peter Galley of Lancaster County.(40) This family was in Fayette Co., Pa. by the early 1800's.

MFH-41 Christian Newcomer, son of Christian of Manor Twp., was born in 1773. He was but thirteen when his father died. As soon as he was of age he came into the ownership of his father's farm of 131 acres by the customary method of paying to each sibling his or her share in money. Christian remained on the homestead and at about this time married a neighbor Barbara Seitz, daughter of Jacob Seitz. They had a family of five girls, three boys, and then another girl. Christian died in his forty-second year. The older girls had already married. Barbara remained on the farm and managed well with her little family. Jacob, the oldest of the boys, was but twelve, however, the legend of his responsibility has lived down to the present. Most of Christian's children settled in Lancaster County. Christian and Barbara are both buried in Habecker's Cemetery in Manor Twp.

MFH-42 Mary Newcomer married Jacob Newcomer of York Co., a farmer, and Mennonite preacher. They moved to Fayette Co., Pa. Her family records are found in James K. Newcomer's Record of One Branch of the Newcomer Family.

MFH-43 John Newcomer went to Maryland where he died leaving no descendants.

MFH-44 Barbara Newcomer married a Snyder and went to Dayton, Ohio. She had no children.

MFH-45 Elizabeth Newcomer, the youngest of Christian's children, was "released to John Stickler" by her gaurdian. I suspect that she may have gone with her older sister Barbara who was 21 that same week.(55) There was a great fever of western migration in the early 1800's.

MFH-57 Elizabeth Newcomer, oldest daughter of Christian and Barbara, married Michael Kauffman (1792-1862). They lived in West Hempfield Twp. in 1838.

MFH-58 Barbara Newcomer (1796-1870) married David Habecker (1791-1889). They moved from Manor Twp. to Niagara Co., N.Y., after 1827.

MFH-59 Catherine Newcomer (1798-1886) married Christian Musser. They are buried on the Musser family farm.

MFH-60 Jacob Newcomer (1801-1881) married Barbara Kauffman (1803-1857). They farmed the homestead farm in Manor Twp. and had a large family. Christian K., the oldest son, inherited the homestead. He married Elizabeth Mellinger. Jacob K. married Anna Buckwalter and purchased a farm in Manor Twp. before his father died. An account of this family may be found in Biographical Annals of Lancaster County. Joseph K., Isaac K., and Abraham K. all farmed in the Manor and are buried in Habecker's Cemetery.

MFH-61 Christian Newcomer (1808-1884), son of Christian and Barbara, married Elizabeth Nissley of Rapho Twp. where they took up farming adjacent to her home. They had a family of three boys and five girls. The account of this family is recorded in Nissley's II by J. Clarence Reist.

MFH-62 John S. Newcomer (1810-1902), the youngest of the sons, married Francis Charles. They lived in Manor Twp., later moving to the White Oak area. John waa a preacher in the in the Church of the Brethern. Dr. Jack Shand has compiled a chart for this branch of the family.

NEWCOMERS

THERE WERE SO MANY NEWCOMERS IN FAYETTE AND WESTMORELAND COUNTIES, PA. WHEN I BEGAN MY QUEST. I DID HAVE HELP FROM A DOROTHY HOOBLER OF KANSAS AND JOAN RUSE FROM IL., TO HELP GET ALL THE NEWCOMERS SEPARATED BY SEPARATING THEM INTO WHAT I CALL THE NEWCOMER ~~"A"-FAMILY~~ "A" FAMILY AND THE NEWCOMER "B" FAMILY.

IN THE BEGINNING OF THE NEWCOMER MIGRATION FROM EASTERN PA. TO SOUTHWESTERN PA., THE FIRST NEWCOMER TO ARRIVE IN FAYETTE CO. WAS ABRAHAM, S/O ULRICH AND MAGDALENA (BAUMGARTNER) NEWCOMER OF HELLAM TWP., YORK COUNTY PA. ABRAHAM SETTLED IN TYRONE TWP., WHICH IS VERY CONFUSING AS TYRONE IS WHERE MY ANCESTORS SETTLED. ABRAHAM ARRIVED IN 1797 AND HIS TWO BROTHERS, JACOB AND JOHN CAME AND SETTLED IN GERMAN TWP. IN 1808. THIS I CALL THE "B" FAMILY. THERE IS A CONNECTION BY MARRIAGE TO MY "A" FAMILY. JACOB S/O ULRICH MARRIED MARY NEWCOMER, (1776-1842) D/O CHRISTIAN NEWCOMER OF MANOR TWP. THIS MARY WAS A NIECE TO MY FIRST ANCESTOR, PETER NEWCOMER, IN FAYETTE CO. TO THE BEST OF MY KNOWLEDGE AT THIS TIME, THERE IS NO OTHER CONNECTION BETWEEN THE TWO FAMILIES. (UNLESS IT WOULD BE BACK IN SWITZERLAND).

NOW TO GET TO MY ANCESTORS. THE FIRST TO COME TO SW PA. WAS PETER NEWCOMER, (1753-1820). PETER HAD BROTHERS, (~~MAR FURREY~~) CHRISTIAN, FATHER OF MARY IN THE PARAGRAPH ABOVE, WHO REMAINED IN MANOR TWP. LANCASTER CO.,PA. AND JOHN WHO SETTLED IN LEITERSBURG DISTRICT, WASHINGTON CO., MARYLAND. IT IS BELIEVED THAT THESE THREE BROTHERS WERE SONS OF IMMIGRANT CHRISTIAN NEWCOMER (SHIP "BROTHERHOOD" ARRIVED PHILA. ON 3rd OF NOV. 1750, HIS WIFE IS UNKNOWN). THIS CHRISTIAN SETTLED IN MANOR TWP., LANCASTER CO.PA.

sp md (2) Asher W. Coburn 1857
2nd marriage for Mr. Coburn

Ohio, Feb. 21, 1808, a son of Damon and Sally (Root) Abel. He was married April 21, 1828, to Electa Hodsell, a native of New York, daughter of John and Abigail (Bray) Hodsell. After his marriage he settled on a farm in Ohio, and in September, 1836, came to Indiana and entered 160 acres of land in Concord Township, De Kalb County. Here he cleared and improved a farm, where he lived till his death, May 10, 1874. Mrs. Abel still lives on the old homestead in the seventy-seventh year of her age. They had a family of ten children, seven of whom are living—James H., Cyrus W., Henry J., Melvinas, Mary Almira, Walter M. and Alice L. George D., Nancy and Lavesta are deceased. In politics Mr. Abel was a Democrat. Mrs. Abel is a member of the Disciples church.

Henry J. Abel, son of George H. and Electa (Hodsell) Abel, is a native of De Kalb County, Ind., born in Concord Township Aug. 19, 1837. He remained with his parents assisting in the care of the farm till his marriage, and then settled on a farm adjoining the one where he now lives, remaining there till 1875, when he bought his present home. He owns 110 acres of improved land with a pleasant residence and good farm buildings. Nov. 22, 1861, he enlisted in Company F, Forty-fourth Indiana Infantry. Soon after going South he was taken sick, and was in the hospital the most of the time till discharged March 10, 1863. He was married Nov. 14, 1858, to Eliza Shull, daughter of Daniel and Susan (Newcome) Shull. To them have been born seven children—Jonathan E., George H., Merton, Herbert E., Essie M., Marion C., and Grace S. Mrs. Abel is a member of the Disciples church. In politics he is a Republican. He is a member of John C. Carns Post, No. 144, G. A. R.

James H. Abel was born in Trumbull County, Ohio, Feb. 9, 1829, the eldest son of George H. and Electa Abel. He was seven years of age when his parents moved to De Kalb County and was reared and educated in the wilds of Indiana. He and his father cleared about seventy acres of the old homestead. He attended school during the winter when his services were not needed on the farm. He remained with his parents till May 14, 1848, when he was married to Abigail Robe, a native of Medina County, Ohio, daughter of Amherst and Abigail (Liswell) Robe, her father a native of Connecticut, and her mother of Massachusetts. After his marriage Mr. Abel bought eighty acres of wild land for which he gave his note. He was but twenty years of age but was possessed of a large degree of energy and perseverance and went bravely to work to improve his land. His wife assisted him by taking in sewing, and together they worked and paid for their home. He cleared eighty acres of heavily timbered land in three years. Sept. 23, 1861, he enlisted in the defense of the Union in Company F, Forty-fourth Indiana Infantry, and Nov. 23 they started for the South. They participated in the battles of Fort Donelson and Shiloh. At the latter battle his regiment went in with 480 men and came out with 241. Soon after the battle of Shiloh he was taken sick with typhoid fever, and not regaining his former health was discharged Sept. 3, 1862. Oct. 6, 1864, he was drafted, although still suffering from the effects of his illness, and was assigned to Company C, Thirty-fifth Indiana Volunteers. Nov. 30 he participated in the battle of Franklin, Tenn., and Dec. 15 and 16 in the battle of Nashville. From there he went to Huntsville, Ala., and the following March to Bull's Gap, thence back to Nashville, and from there in June to Victoria, Tex., where they remained till discharged Sept. 30, 1865. Since his return from the war he has engaged in agricultural pursuits, although his army experience has unfitted him for any hard work. He was elected Assessor of his township in the fall of 1864, but appointed a deputy while he was in the service. He was re-elected in 1866 and again in 1872, and in 1880 he was appointed to take the census of his township. He has been a Republican in politics since 1856, casting his first Presidential vote for Frank Pierce. To Mr. and Mrs. Abel have been born three children—Mary E., wife of John B. Taylor, of Baltimore, Md.; Ida O., wife of Adelbert Andrews, of Hicksville, Ohio; and Freeman H., who married Ella Kelley and lives on the old homestead. Mrs. Abel's parents came to De Kalb County in 1837 and entered eighty acres of land in Wilmington Township, where her mother died in 1840. They had a family of four children. The eldest son also died in 1840. The other son, Bennett S., died at Chattanooga while a soldier in the civil war. The father afterward married Amilla Hayford, and of their two children a son is living. Mr. Robe died in 1846.

James Baker, farmer and stock-raiser, Concord Township, was born in Bedford County, Pa., Sept. 28, 1814, a son of Joseph and Nancy (Smith) Baker. When he was seven years of age his parents moved to Adams County, Pa., where his provements are among the best in the township. To Mr. and Mrs. Showalter have been born eleven children, seven of whom are living—Joseph E., Anna Mary, Cora E., Flora J., Hortense May, Myrtle J., and William A. The deceased are, Leander C., Barbara A., Catherine J. and Alice C. In politics Mr. Showalter is a Republican. He and his wife are members of the Methodist Episcopal church.

Jonathan Shull, farmer and stock-raiser, Concord Township, was born in Fayette County, Pa., April 21, 1838, a son of Daniel and Susan (Newcomer) Shull, the former a native of Maryland, born in January, 1810, and the latter born in 1815. His parents were married Sept. 3, 1831, and in 1837 moved to Wayne County, Ohio, where they lived till the fall of 1846, when they came to De Kalb County, Ind., and bought eighty acres of wild land, afterward adding to it 160 acres. Here the father died Sept. 28, 1853. He was an old line Whig in politics, and a member of the Disciples church, as was also his wife. They had a family of nine children; eight lived till maturity and seven are now living—David, of Lansing, Mich.; Jonathan; Eliza, wife of H. J. Abel; Henry C., of Allen County; Sarah, deceased, was the wife of Abraham Cottrell, of Lansing, Mich.; Lydia, wife of M. D. Hadsell, of Nebraska; Joseph; Harriet, wife of Lucius Palmer, of Allen County. Their eldest child, Mary, died in September, 1843, aged twelve years. In 1857 the mother married Asher Coburn, who died Sept. 11, 1874. She now resides in Allen County. Jonathan Shull was eight years of age when his parents moved to De Kalb County. He was reared on a farm, receiving a good education in the district schools, completing it at the Newville Academy. When eighteen years of age he began teaching school, and taught winters for fourteen years, farming during the summer. After his marriage he continued in the business of farming and teaching for eleven years, and then moved to Lansing, Mich., where he engaged in the mercantile business two years. Then he returned to De Kalb County, and added fifty acres to the old homestead farm where he now lives, which contains 130 acres, all under cultivation. Mr. Shull was married Dec. 25, 1862, to Maria M. Hadsell, a native of Trumbull County, Ohio, daughter of James and Mary (Abel) Hadsell. They have had a family of seven children—Clara C. (wife of Lewis Lake), Cadmus C., Thurman H., Rosa (died in infancy), Henry C., Carl D., and Fred. N. Mrs. Shull is a member of the Disciples church. In politics Mr. Shull is independent.

There is a hymn, words and music, and a book on record of the family.

HAROLD GEE CURIE, descends from several generations of DeKalb County residents as he now owns the farm in Concord Township that belonged to his great grandmother Gee and great-great grandfather Flint. It is listed in the 1863 atlas as being owned by the Gee family and is presently called the C.C.R. farm from the names Curie, Curie, and Rardin.

Harold Gee Curie, born 16 January 1929, at his parents home near St. Joe, son of Charles Harold and Mildred Lois (Gee) Curie. His paternal grandparents are Frank and Cora (Sechler) Curie, of St. Joe. His maternal grandparents were Lancy and Minnie (Swartz) Gee, of the same area. Harold attended the St. Joe High School. He served in the U.S. Army during the Korean War. He worked at General Electric and farms and is presently employed at the DeKalb County Farm Bureau Co-op, as a tank truck driver.

Harold married Emily Marie Shull at Coburn Corners Church of Christ.

Emily is also a descendant of early DeKalb County settlers, as her great-great grandfather, Daniel Shull and his wife, Susan (Newcomer) Shull bought eighty acres of wild land in 1846.

Emily Marie Shull was born 13 August 1935, in the home of her parents, Oleus Guy and Erma (Kisabeth) Shull, of Hicksville, Ohio. Her paternal grandparents are Clem and Edith (Phillips) Shull. Her maternal grandparents were Salvester Jacob and Carrie (Otis) Kisabeth, of Hicksville, Ohio. Emily attended Spencerville High School and worked at Lincoln Life Insurance Company, Fort Wayne. She is presently a housewife.

The Curie family has a son, Charles Guy, born 22 July 1955. He attended Eastside High School, Huntington College, and later received his Masters at the University of Chicago. He married Candace Eileen Bard, of Chambersburg, Pennsylvania, 24 June 1978. They now reside in Tiffin, Ohio, where he is an Executive Director of Sandusky Valley Center, Inc.

Leota Marie Curie, daughter of Harold and Emily Curie, was born 7 August 1958. She attended Eastside High School and Huntington College and finished at Bethel College, receiving a B.A. degree in Fine Arts. She married Larence Rardin, of LaPorte, Indiana, 21 July 1979. They have a son, Daniel Larence, born 3 September 1983.

MARIE "MARY" (KESSLER) NAGLE, moved to Auburn in the year 1898 with her four children. She purchased a house on Van Buren Street between Ninth and Tenth Streets. Since that time a member of the family has always lived in that block. At the present time the Strahm apartments have been built on the site.

Mrs. Nagle, born in 1853, came to this county from Bremerhaven, Germany, with her parents when she was three years old. They settled on a farm near Stryker, Ohio, and were members of the St. Johns Lutheran Church, Stryker, Ohio.

Mr. August A. Nagle was eleven years old when he came to America with his parents from Hanover, Germany, on 18 August 1854.

August A. Nagle and Marie Kessler were married in 1873 and lived on their farm on Nagle Road, Defiance County, Defiance, Ohio. They had four children: Charles; Ida, married Charles Musser; Ruby, married Bert Maxwell; and William.

Carl "Charles" Nagle married Elmira Anne Draper. Their children are Mildred, Dorothy, Ruth, Carl, Hobart, and Esther, all born and raised in Auburn.

Dorothy married Marcellus Haite. Dorothy is a member of St. Mark's Lutheran Church and was a charter member of Sigma Beta Sorority.

Ruth married Philip Strahm. Their home is in Auburn and they are members of St. Mark's Lutheran Church. Ruth is a member of the Charm and Chatter Club and Treasurer of Needlework Guild. Ruth and Philip have one son, Ronald Strahm, and two grandchildren, Philip and Shannon.

Mr. and Mrs. Haite and Mr. and Mrs. Strahm were owners of the National Five and Ten Store which was located on Main Street on the Courthouse Square. They also had stores in Syracuse and Butler, Indiana, and Bryan, Ohio.

Carl W. Nagle married Dorothy Hoover of Hartford City, Indiana. They live in Carmel, Indiana, and belong to the Heritage Baptist Church of Indianapolis, Indiana. Carl and Dorothy have two daughters: Sherry, married David Leman, and Linda, married Terrence Clausen, and three grandchildren: Lisa, Jason, and David Leman.

Carl was a former manager of J.J. Newberry Company of Hartford City. He served in World War II as Staff Sergeant and Assistant Chaplain. At present time he is coordinator in multiple-level marketing as an independent contractor with Shaklee Corporation. He spent thirty years in direct sales.

Hobart W. Nagle married Mildred Benzinger of Hoagland, Indiana. They are members of Emanuel Lutheran Church and live in Fort Wayne, Indiana. Hobart and Mildred have two sons: Kenneth Jeffrey and James Nagle and three grandchildren: Amy, Christina, and Jonathon

MFH-13 Francis Newcomer is recorded as having a warrentee for fifty acres of land in Lancaster County on June 8, 1750.(20) One other reference (21) places his name among "Ye acient Inhabitants" of the West End of Derry in 1755, 1757, and 1759. In 1785, Derry Twp., was part of Dauphin County.

MFH-21 Jacob Newcomer is a Hempfield farmer who bought a propietary tract of 176 acres in 1750.(33) Dying in 1759 as the father of a very young family, the Orphan's Court tell the story. Jacob left a wife Eva(34) and children John, Anna, Jacob, and Christian(35). He must have been a very young man, perphaps in his thirties.

MFH-36 John S. Newcomer, eldest son of Jacob of Hempfield, was but six when his father died. How Mother Eva managed with her young family has not been recorded. We are just fortunate to learn her first name from some administrative papers. John Jr. married Anna. There is a leagel record(51) reporting that when John turned 21, his father's farm in Hempfield was disposed. Further history of this 176 acres up to the time it was sold out of the Newcomer name in 1782 is given in a deed (52). John and Anna had seven children and their names are recordee in their father's will, written in 1805 and proved in 1822. John lived into his seventieth year. John Jr. who married Sussanna was an exector of the will as well as John Hertzler, the husband of the oldest daughter, Barbara. JohnNewcomer is a freeholder in West Hempfield in 1819.

MFH-37 Anna Newcomer, daughter of Jacob was born in 1755. She was the second wife of John Summy of Rapho Twp. This information is taken from the Long Family of Pennsylvania. Joseph Long and Christ Haldeman were guardians of the Newcomer children.

MFH-38 Jacob Newcomer was born in 1756(54). He is probaly the Jacob Newcomer who appears in the 1790 census, Manor Twp. (3-3-4). In 1791, he married Ensminger.

MFH-39 Christian Newcomer, the youngest of this family, was but a year old when his father died.

MFH-55 John Newcomer Jr., son of John S. and Anna married 1818 to Mary Kauffman, daughter of Christian Kauffman. They had sons John, Emannuel, and Ephriam.

MFH-26 John Newcomer appears as a weaver on the tax list of Manor Twp. in 1780 after Christian Newcomer, also a weaver of Manor Twp. 1771, 1772, and 1773, no longer appears.(41) Is this father and son? Another question whether John Newcomer, weaver, is the same as the following John.

MFH-27 John Newcomer near Millerville had a wife Frany and children: Elizabeth b. 1784, John 1792, Christian, Nancy, Mary, and Frany. They moved to Cavetown District, Leitersburg, Maryland in 1797.(42)

MFH-46 Elizabeth Newcomer, oldest child of John and Frany Newcomer, was born in 1784. She moved with her family to Maryland when thirteen.

MFH-47 John Newcomer, eldest son of John and Frany, was born near Millersville in 1792. At the age of five, he moved to Cavetown District, Washington Co., Maryland, where he grew up and is the ancestor of many. Williams History of the county traces this family.

Dear Mr. Newcomer:

Thanks for your reply to my ad re: Jacob Newcomer (Tri-State Trader). There is nothing in the lineage you sent that eliminates the Jacob b. about 1790 from being my Jacob until more is known of wife Elizabeth Lehman. If she died early then time would permit Jacob to 2 m. my gg grandmother Susan (or Susanna) —— about 1817. My g. grandmother Mary Newcomer was b. 1818. The family was in Richland Co. Ohio by 1830 where they remained.

Mary married Jacob Kunkle about 1840 but strangely the published records of Richland Co & Knox Co. (they lived near the border) does not show their marriage. Kunkle died by accident in 1847 leaving 3 children. One, Henry was my mother's father, at Toledo, Ohio. Mary died in Van Wert, Iowa ca. 1890(?).

I have completed my Mallett and most of its allied lines back to the immigrants in New England but can't get my mother's lines out of Ohio. Both the Kunkle & Newcomer had similar origins and all repeated the same names in each generation.

I should greatly appreciate receiving a copy of Christian's will as it is the most promising item to date. Let me know the cost so I can pay you.

Sincerely,

Manley W. Mallett

JOHN NEWCOMER.

In noting the prominent and successful agriculturists of Seneca county, Ohio, John Newcomer, who owns and operates a fine farm of one hundred and eight acres in Bloom township, deserves special mention. Not only has he demonstrated his practical knowledge of farming and stock-raising, but for a number of years he has also been a well known business man and is a public-spirited citizen.

Mr. Newcomer's native state is Ohio, and his birth occurred on March 3, 1836, in Medina county. His parents were Peter and Mary (Rohrer) Newcomer, the former of whom was born in Washington county, Maryland, from which he moved into Medina county, Ohio, in 1833. There he purchased a tract of land, and there a log cabin was the family home for many years. Peter and Mary Newcomer had a family of nine children, their names being as follows: John, of this sketch; Abraham, a resident of Medina; Margaret and Anna, twins, the latter being deceased; Jacob, of Medina county; Daniel, deceased; David, deceased; Henry, of Medina; and Mary. The parents of this family lived quiet, frugal lives and when they passed away left many friends who were sincere mourners.

Born and reared on a farm, John Newcomer, of this sketch, has followed an agricultural life with success, his early environment giving him a practical knowledge of this vocation. His education was acquired in the public schools, which he attended, with the sons of other farmers, during the winter sessions, the summers being usually given to work on the farm. In those days much of the labor which is now done by cunningly contrived machinery fell upon the youths, and hay time and harvest meant as much hard work for the school lads as for those who were older and stronger.

Perhaps this caused our subject to leave the farm for a short season and learn the carpenter trade, but he returned to farming life shortly afterward, employing the winter seasons in carpenter work. In 1861 Mr. Newcomer came to Seneca county and bought eighty acres of good land, in Bloom township, within one mile of Bloomville, living on that place for five years. Selling that place, he bought another tract of eighty acres, improved the same and cultivated it for ten years. He finally sold this farm also, and in 1876 he moved to his present farm, where he owns one hundred and eight acres of excellent land, which he has made into one of the best farms of this locality. The excellent and appropriate improvements on this place have been made by Mr. Newcomer, and they testify to his good judgment and practical character. Here he has successfully engaged in farming and stock-raising, his land being well adapted to both industries. For the past fifteen years he has added another line of business, dealing extensively in fertilizers.

Mr. Newcomer was married on October 25, 1860, to Miss Susan Buckley, who was born May 18, 1840, in Bloom township, being a daughter of George and Magdalena (Troxel) Buckley. A family of five children was born to this union, namely: Jerome L., who operates the home farm and is a capable agriculturist, married Millie M. Griffin and they have one child; Emily L. is the wife of Alvin Huddle, a druggist of Bloomville; Jennella is the wife of William Baldwin, an oil dealer of Bloomville; Lillian M. is the wife of Harry Buckingham, a druggist of Bloomville; and Magdeline resides at the parental home. All of this family command the esteem of the communities in which they live, and are among the most intelligent residents. George Buckley was born in Berlin, Prussia, and at the age of thirteen years came to America with his parents, Michael and Barbara Buckley. They settled in Stark county, Ohio, and there he was married to Magdalena Troxel, a daughter of Jacob and Elizabeth Troxel. Immediately after their marriage George and Magdalena Buckley came to Seneca county, locating in Bloom township, where they passed the remainder of their lives. His death occurred in 1842 at the age of thirty-seven years, while his widow survived him by more than fifty years, dying at the age of eighty-six. She had become the wife of Isaac Rohrer. Her five children by the first marriage were as follows: Elizabeth, the wife of Jacob Detweiler; Catherine, who died in her twenty-first year, unmarried; Michael, of Kosciusko county, Indiana; Susan, the wife of Mr. Buckley; and Hannah, who is the widow of John Hahn and lives in Bloomville.

Mr. Newcomer is a Republican in his political views, and he has served efficiently in a number of the local offices, notably as township trustee. He has shown his interest in educational matters by serving for years on the school board, during which time his sensible and conservative course did much to permanently improve this branch of the township's business. Both he and wife are members of the Mennonite church, holding association with the society in Medina county, and he is one of the honest and upright citizens of the class which has made Bloom township a leading section of the county.

Couple gives the needy $106,608 worth of food—by clipping coupons!

A bighearted preacher and his wife have purchased a whopping $106,608 worth of groceries for the poor — with just $972 in cash.

They did it by using their neighbors' extra newspaper coupons!

"My wife Louise and I both worked in grocery stores when we were younger. We knew that coupons in the Sunday papers were an incredible resource that was being overlooked," explained Rev. Kevin Newcomer of the First Christian Church of Empowerment, in Wheaton, Md.

The Newcomers, who'd been involved in charitable work, came up with their clever idea three years ago and asked people in their community to chip in by donating unused coupons.

Astonishingly, the couple now have more than 2,000 Good Samaritans in the Washington, D.C. area involved in clipping coupons.

Their budget in 1992 was just $100 — with that modest sum and coupons, they were able to purchase and distribute $4,400 worth of groceries to organizations for the needy. The next year they managed to parlay $805 into $45,000 worth of goods.

Last year they carted off $44,137 worth of groceries including hundreds of free trial-size samples for just $40.

Your community can do it, too

And this year they're doing at least as well — and have collected a grand total of $106,608 in groceries so far.

One of the grateful recipients is the Shepherd's Table in Silver Spring, Md.

"This is one of the greatest, most simple and effective programs I've ever heard about — it's a godsend," marveled project coordinator Gretta Jones.

Any community group in your area can do the same thing, noted Rev. Newcomer.

"All you need are the coupons that are normally thrown away. You have volunteers clip and sort them. Then take the coupons to shop and let them do their work.

"It doesn't cost a great deal, but it can have a big impact!"

Dear Richard,

I received your letter the other day, and prior to that came the large envelope containing all that information.

Thank you for sending me this packet. I was very interested to learn that the Newcomer name went back so far in time. As I told you over the phone, my father (Llewellyn Newcomer) always said he was Pennsylvania Dutch. As a boy, that really didn,t mean anything to me. If he had said he was German, Seedish, etc., I could have related to that.

My grandfathers name was Daniel Newcomer, and he was married to Chloe Clark. They were farm people, and their property was located just outside of Brodhead, Wisconsin, a small town just over the Illinois state line..

All of their offspring stayed in that area, or not too many miles away.

I enjoyed talking to you and Roger on the phone when you were here in Denver. Once again, thank you for the insight into the Newcomer heritage.

Yours truly,

Roger Newcomer

Dear Richard,

You are kind indeed to share your Newcomer/Wolf material. I am most appreciative. I'm well supplied now with Newcomer information for which I am most grateful.

In everything your shared and in what James Newcomer told me I am yet unable to locate Mary Ann (Nancy Ann) Newcomer (1788-1871) who m George B. Wolf. They were of Knox Twp Columbiana Co OH. Can't seem to get a handle on her.

But I have a mass of Wolf information in York and old Lancaster Counties so I am not giving up the search. Surely I'll come across your two Newcomer men who married the Wolf sisters.

When/if I do I will certainly write again to you and James; what a 'find' that would be!

Warmest regards,

Ray
